

NATIONAL LEADERSHIP & SKILLS CONFERENCE

ATLANTA | JUNE 2023

Suggested State Meetings

SLSC - NLSC Meeting (March/April/May)

During your State Leadership & Skills Conference, hold a meeting that is open to anyone who would like to attend the National Leadership & Skills Conference as part of your state delegation. This meeting should preview the week in Atlanta, explain various experiences and outline the registration process and conference fees. Some state associations host this meeting at SLSC right immediately following their award session. Others hold it virtually a few days after SLSC. The resources provided by SkillsUSA are adaptable to your needs.

Script and slide deck will be posted in the State Director Information Hub in December.

State Delegation Welcome Meeting (Monday, June 19)

Kicking off the week in Atlanta, this state meeting welcomes your state delegation to NLSC, sets context for the week and provides an opportunity for state delegation expectations to be explained. It is recommended that state SkillsUSA directors hand out registration materials at this meeting. Be sure to cover all of the information outlined to ensure delegation success at conference. Make this meeting a high energy experience and ensure that all members are recognized for their achievement in attending NLSC.

Script and slide deck will be posted in the State Director Information Hub in June.

Post-Awards Session Meeting (Friday, June 23 – Evening)

Immediately following the conclusion of the Award Session, this final meeting is a state celebration of your delegation's representation and participation at NLSC. It is suggested that a light meal or snack be served. Take time to individually recognize and congratulate each advisor and student who earned recognition during conference and then celebrate all participants!

Script and slide deck will be posted in the State Director Information Hub in June.
