

NATIONAL LEADERSHIP & SKILLS CONFERENCE

PIN DESIGN CHALLENGE

WHAT

Each year, SkillsUSA challenges students across the country to put their skills to the test and contribute creative designs to commemorate the year's National Leadership and Skills Conference. This challenge tasks students with creating a custom pin design for SkillsUSA's National Leadership and Skills Conference.

WHY

This design challenge is intended to give students the chance to contribute to the branding of the National Leadership and Skills Conference while simultaneously sharpening their technical skills in the area of graphics and design.

SkillsUSA Framework

This challenge will develop the following Essential Elements of the SkillsUSA Framework:

- Job-Specific Skills.

TONE OF VOICE

Bold, celebratory and expressive.

AUDIENCE

The primary audience for this product is attendees of the National Leadership and Skills Conference. However, other SkillsUSA stakeholders will also have the opportunity to purchase the pin from the SkillsUSA Store. Keep in mind that the primary attendees of the National Leadership and Skills Conference are students in the 14-18 range.

GOALS

SkillsUSA wants this piece to commemorate the National Leadership and Skills Conference while celebrating the Essential Element growth that takes place during the conference. The final design should also be reflective of the conference location: Atlanta, Ga.

- Create a commemorative product that all SkillsUSA Stakeholders would be proud to wear for years after the conference
- Create a product that adheres to all of SkillsUSA's brand standards and honors the SkillsUSA brand, conference brand and annual theme.

PIN DESIGN CHALLENGE

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

- All designs must be rendered in color (limited to four process or spot colors).
- Entries must be created in a design software such as Illustrator, Photoshop or InDesign. Hand-drawn designs will not be accepted.
- Only one PDF file should be uploaded. The artwork contained within this PDF file should be no larger than 2" x 2".
- Contestants should take into account that pin design will be displayed on small pin. Smaller text may not be legible at a small display size.
- The SkillsUSA emblem or SkillsUSA logo (whole or elements of either) cannot appear on the design.
- All copyright laws must be followed in the creation of the design. Plagiarism of any kind will result in disqualification.
- The student must retain a digital copy of their original design in its native file format until results are announced. Upon notification, the winner will be required to submit their native art files to SkillsUSA by email or file transfer, as directed.
- SkillsUSA retains the right to make modifications to the final design as necessary.

REQUIRED TEXT

The following strings of text are required to appear in the final design as either a text string or a graphical element:

- "National Leadership and Skills Conference" OR "NLSC"
- "2023"
- "Atlanta"

OFFICIAL SKILLSUSA COLORS

While not required to be used, designers should be conscious of SkillsUSA's official colors (outlined below). Using these colors keeps the SkillsUSA brand consistent across all applications.
