SkillsUSA Students Build Bikes, Collect Socks to Support Atlanta

On Friday, June 23, an estimated 554 SkillsUSA members from across the nation will serve the Atlanta community by participating in the SkillsUSA “Build Skills – Do Good – Complete the Cycle” community service project. The students will work in teams to build bicycles which will be presented to local children. The day of service will begin with a kickoff rally at 9 a.m. From 9:30 a.m. to 12 p.m., teams will build bikes. For 20 years, SkillsUSA has hosted a community service event during NLSC to provide our members with a hands-on service opportunity.

Registrants for the community service project were also challenged to donate up to 1,000 pairs of socks that will be given to CHRIS 180, a local Atlanta organization. Socks are one of the most requested clothing items in homeless shelters. CHRIS 180 helps children, young adults and families who have experienced trauma change the direction of their lives to become more productive and self-sufficient members of the community through mental health counseling, training and through safe housing and skill building.

This effort is made possible with support and funding from: State Farm Insurance Companies, the Swinerton Foundation, U.S. Air Force and CBRE.
