

NATIONAL LEADERSHIP & SKILLS CONFERENCE

ATLANTA | JUNE 2023

Request for Accommodation

SkillsUSA is committed to providing equal access during our national conference. Please use this form to request accommodation or assistance for national contestants at NLSC. Our staff will review each request and contact the requestor if additional information is needed to provide services. Please submit all requests by June 1.

The online form should be used for national contestants or participants who:

- Require the assistance of another person at the orientation meeting and/or during the competition
- Have a disability that may require adaptations or accommodations
- Have hearing impairment and will need the support of a sign language specialist for the contest orientation, beginning of the contest and/or the debriefing. If a signer is needed for longer intervals or for the whole day, SkillsUSA will work with state SkillsUSA directors on an individual basis
- Have food allergies, diabetes or other health concerns or conditions
- Use a wheelchair, walker or crutches
- Require a translator due to a language barrier (note: state associations must cover the cost of translation services, if needed)

Fill out this online form starting March 1
